

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 2008

Burley accepts scholarship offer

Travis Burley committed to attend Garden City Community Junior College in Kansas today and accepted their offer of a full scholarship to play football.

Garden City is a school that prides themselves on preparing both students and athletes for success at larger schools. The Broncbuster website lists a number of alumni that have gone on to success at not only larger schools, but the NFL as well.

Burley took his time in choosing where he would begin his college career. "It basically boiled down to a school in Minnesota and Garden City. Garden City plays both football and basketball. Just the chance that I could continue to play both sports led me to Kansas."

On hand for today's signing was brother, Bobby Burley, Burley's mother Kathleen, sister Kathy and Screaming Devil coaches Alvin Wright and Lee Hutto.